

ChristianityToday

The men in this picture died in a Chinese prison camp—all except one. The survivor is holding this photo to remind the world that the Chinese government, at the highest levels, continues to harass, arrest, torture, and kill people for their political and religious beliefs—especially Christians. Li Shi-xiong has documented 22,000 cases to prove that the 'new' China is up to its old repressive tricks.

